Handel for Congress

In 2017, Karen Handel became a national conservative hero when she defeated liberal darling Jon Ossoff in Georgia's hotly contested Sixth District special election (the most expensive House race in history). She narrowly lost election to a full term in 2018 due to the predicted Blue Wave but is back, running for her old seat and running neck and neck with the one-issue liberal incumbent (that one issue being gun control). This list is packed with rock-solid conservatives who are committed to the Second Amendment, Right to Life issues, and traditional Republican values.
